

An AFMC Peer Recovery Specialist is Here for You!

What is a peer recovery specialist?

A peer recovery specialist is a peer that has two or more years of continuous recovery and has over 30 hours of recovery training. A peer recovery specialist offers support and understanding due to their unique “lived experience” with substance use and mental health.

AFMC Peer Recovery Specialists provide support through advocacy, education, mentorship, and motivation.

 (501) 804-3335

 peersupport@afmc.org

 afmc.org/rcorp-i/

